1 Superior Rooms

Radiating warmth and comfort, our eighty-eight queen or twin-bedded Superior Rooms are sized from 30 to 35 square meters. Antique furniture, beautiful fabrics in rose or red, and marble bathrooms make for a luxurious stay in the Superior category.

2 Deluxe Rooms

Our generously sized Deluxe Rooms feature elegant furnishings accented with luxuriant fabrics. Measuring up to 45 square meters, the thirty-six light-filled rooms have spacious marble bathrooms and a choice between king or twin beds.

3 Exclusive Rooms

Guests in the Exclusive category will appreciate the carefully selected antique furniture, exquisite fabrics in delicate green, pure silk wallpaper, and ornate ceilings with baroque stucco. The fifty-one 45-square-meter rooms have king or twin beds and luxurious bathrooms with bathtubs. Connecting rooms are available.

1 Junior Suites

Nineteen Junior Suites offer 60 square meters of perfectly proportioned space each. Delicate green interiors evoke an incomparable atmosphere of relaxed luxury. Each suite has a cozy lounge area, a choice between king or twin beds, and a sumptuous bathroom.

2 Executive Suites

Located on the 6th floor of the Grand Hotel Wien, our three Executive Suites are havens of luxury and comfort. Measuring 70 square meters, they are full of enchanting details like a terrace with an inner city view, a cozy, rose-colored bedroom, a living room with a separate dining area, and a marble bathroom with bathtub and shower.

3 Senior Suites

Our four Senior Suites are light-flooded corner rooms commanding beautiful views of Vienna's historic city center. In 116 square meters of space, each includes a generously proportioned living room, a bedroom with a choice of king or twin beds, and a dining room that can be used as a conference room for up to eight people. A fully equipped kitchen and an additional guest bathroom further add to the uniqueness of this category.

4 Deluxe Suites

Our exclusive, 130-square-meter Deluxe Suite has a salon with a fireplace and a dining table, a spacious bedroom with a choice between king or twin beds, a bathroom with a whirlpool tub and a shower, and a fully equipped kitchen. An additional room can be added via a connecting door to create a two-bedroom Deluxe Suite measuring 175 square meters.

Royal Suite

The 220-square-meter Royal Suite at the Grand Hotel Wien is one of the biggest and most prestigious suites in Vienna. Its large entrance area opens into an exquisitely appointed apartment featuring an elegant salon, a fully equipped kitchen, a study, a stylish dining room seating up to eight people, a bedroom with a lavishly comfortable four-poster bed, and a luxurious marble bathroom with whirlpool and shower. The Royal Suite can be connected with an adjoining Junior Suite to create a colossal 280-square-meter two-bedroom suite that leaves nothing to be desired.

The Grand Hotel Wien is home to three of the best restaurants in town. Take the elevator to the 7th floor, make a left for France and a right for Japan. A stop on the 1st floor takes you back to traditional Viennese cuisine.

If you're looking for a first-class culinary experience, you don't even have to leave the hotel. The award-winning French restaurant Le Ciel (the sky) and sleekly sophisticated Japanese restaurant Unkai (sea of clouds) on 7th floor of the Grand Hotel Wien will bring you a little bit closer to the sky. Back on the first floor, the Grand Café is a traditional Viennese establishment offering extensive breakfast selections, Viennese specialties, and mouthwatering patisseries.

Le Ciel

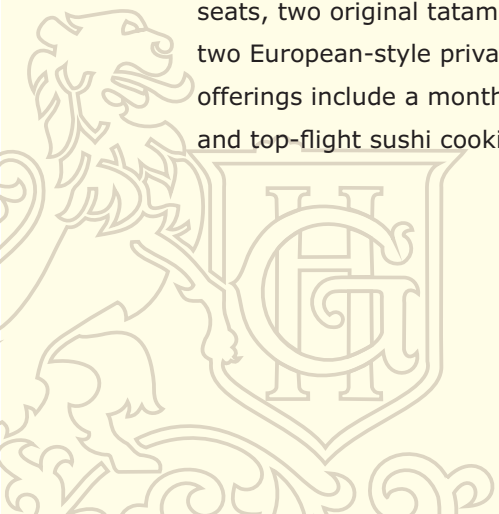

Le Ciel

Le Ciel is not only legendary for its breathtaking view over Vienna, but also for its impeccable service and magnificent cuisine. It is styled in warm traditional colors; the china and silver were all specially created for this celebrated restaurant. Chef de Cuisine Jacqueline Pfeiffer, awarded with two toques by the definitive gourmet guide Gault Millau, is famous for her French-inspired culinary art. Le Ciel offers seventy-two seats and two private rooms. In the summertime, guests can enjoy the culinary highlights on a beautiful outside terrace seating thirty-eight. www.leciel.at

2 Unkai

Unkai, meaning "sea of clouds", hints at the restaurant's 7th-floor location at the Grand Hotel Wien. Head chef Hiroshi Sakai creates authentic Japanese cuisine in its purest form. The highly awarded restaurant welcomes its guests in a contemporary but traditional Japanese interior with fifty-five seats, two original tatami rooms, two teppanyaki tables, and two European-style private rooms. The sophisticated culinary offerings include a monthly changing traditional Kaiseki menu and top-flight sushi cooking courses. www.unkai.at

3 Unkai Sushi

The sushi bar on the ground floor of the Grand Hotel Wien offers highest quality sushi and sashimi in a modern ambience. The exclusive, nineteen-seat restaurant is located on the famous Ringstrasse boulevard and offers outside dining on a ten-seat terrace from April to October. In addition to an excellent selection of sake and red and white wines, Unkai Sushi offers a true rarity: Ashati beer on tap. www.unkai-sushi.at

4 Grand Café

The more casual Grand Café is located on the first floor of the Grand Hotel Wien and welcomes its guests with a wide variety of culinary choices. With seating for ninety-two and a fantastic view of the legendary Ringstrasse boulevard, the hotel's main restaurant is an ideal spot for Viennese specialties and traditional patisseries. Whether you come for a leisurely breakfast, a relaxed coffee or tea break in the afternoon, or an intimate dinner, the Grand Café offers traditional Viennese ambience at its best.

1 Rosengarten

Imagine a rose garden in the midst of one of the most beautiful hotel lobbies in Vienna. The 50-seat Rosengarten lounge bar serves beverages and snacks combined with live piano music and the international flair of the Grand Hotel Wien. During the summer months, the seating area is enlarged with a flower-bedecked outdoor terrace.

2 Kavalierbar

The Kavalierbar's atmosphere is reminiscent of a British club. Seating thirty-three in a generously sized lounge, it includes comfortable chairs, couches, and an open bar to provides the perfect setting for private conversations and entertaining encounters.

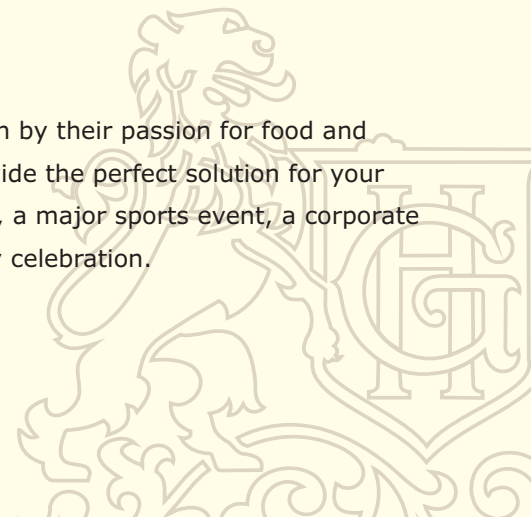

Did you ever try to pronounce Guglhupf? Rather difficult, we know. But you will have no difficulties enjoying it.

The traditional Viennese Guglhupf was the favorite pastry of Emperor Franz Joseph and is no less popular today. At the Grand Hotel Wien, this typically Viennese coffee cake is baked according to a well-guarded secret recipe that makes it deliciously moist and fresh. It contains no artificial additives and is made with the highest quality ingredients available. The proof is in its taste. Various sizes of Grand Guglhupf are available at the hotel or online at www.grandguglhupf.com.

You don't necessarily have to be guest at the Grand Hotel Wien to enjoy culinary artwork in Grand style. Our award-winning culinary team will come to the location of your choice.

The Grand Catering team is driven by their passion for food and cooking and will be happy to provide the perfect solution for your occasion, whether it is a wedding, a major sports event, a corporate Christmas party, or a small family celebration. www.grandcatering.com

Grand Hotel Wien: A Story with History

When the Grand Hotel Wien opened its doors in 1870, it was Vienna's first luxury hotel and the first of the famous hotels on the prestigious Ringstrasse boulevard. Boasting three hundred rooms and apartments, a steam-operated elevator, bars, restaurants, and stables for the guests' horses, it set entirely new standards and instantly became a sensation. Everybody who was anybody met here. Eduard Strauss gave concerts in the hotel's ballroom, and in 1804 his brother, the King of Waltz Johann Strauss, celebrated the 50th anniversary of his debut as a composer in the same hall.

Today the Grand Hotel Wien looks back on an eventful past with glamorous and turbulent times, crowned heads and dramatic affairs, with culinary and musical highlights - but above all, with hundreds of thousands of guests who filled the venerable edifice with life.
