Overlooking the beautiful rooftops of Vienna on the 7th floor of the Grand Hotel Wien, executive Chef Jürgen Lengauer and his expert team pay homage to traditional Viennese cuisine coupled with a range of exciting international influences. Diners can expect a host of classic and newly interpreted creations, designed to delight the palate and showcase a host of creative Austrian flavours and skill, along with a fascinating range of vegan and vegetarian dishes.

UNKAI - Japanese Cuisine

„UNKAI“ means „sea of clouds“ – a playful allusion to its seventh-floor location in the hotel. It has been awarded with two toques (13.5 points) by Gault Millau. Our kitchen team treats its guests to authentic Japanese dishes of the very highest order. The main restaurant area accommodates 44 diners, two original tatami rooms each seat four to six people, and our two teppanyaki tables are suitable for eight people each.

There are also two European-style private rooms, each offering capacity for eight guests.

UNKAI - Bar & Sushi

Grand Hotel Wien's trendy sushi bar on the ground floor is situated directly at the front of the hotel and is accessible from the lobby. It seats up to 19 people. From April to October, the adjoining „Schanigarten“ (pavement café) invites you to enjoy and linger.
